Santa Fe Fiesta, Inc., honors the religious, cultural and social traditions of our community.

Our responsibility is to organize the annual "Fiesta de Santa Fé," America's oldest and most continuous community celebration. Fiesta commemorates Don Diego De Vargas' promise to La Conquistadora the oldest Marion figure in the United States, that if he could peacefully resettle the City of Holy Faith in 1692, he would honor her annually with a fiesta. On September 16, 1712, The Santa Fe City Council issued a proclamation establishing Fiesta De Santa Fé. The decree, which specifies "vespers, mass sermon and a procession through the main plaza" was signed by General Juan Paez Hurtado, president in the place of Lord Marquis de La Peñuela - Captain, Alfonso Rael de Aguilar.
